

Lindsay Waddington

Lindsay Waddington has been a professional touring and session musician for many years. He made his career as one of Australia's busiest country drummers having toured with and backed most of our leading artists.

For over 10 years Lindsay toured with Lindsay Butler and Shaza Leigh and prior to that he spent several years with "The Brian Young Show". "Waddo" as he is affectionately known as within the industry, made the transition to become a multi-instrumentalist and entertainer.

In 2003 Waddo released his debut instrumental album "Cool Change", and also started producing in his own Kross Kut Records Studio on the Gold Coast. Then In 2005 Waddo received the Queensland Gold Medallion Award for "Queensland Musician of the Year" and continued his success to receive the same award in 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009 and 2010 making a record breaking 6 consecutive years in a row.

He is an integral part of any show, and has built a growing following not only from his guitar and mandolin skills but for his larrikin wit and light-hearted comedy.

