

Owen Blundell

Owen was born in Tumut, New South Wales Australia,

Owen loves to sing and has always tried to promote his music through his live shows which more often than not, keeps him away from home a lot of the time. He is a survivor, music is his life, to succeed you need honest management, or do it yourself. Owen has embarked on a solo one man quest to take his music to encompass not only Australia but the rest of the world via the Internet and double his touring schedule.

With mentors such as Slim Dusty, Reg Poole, Terry Gordon, Michael Crawford, Chris and Angie Pritchard, all of these artists have shaped and taught Owen everything he knows about entertaining. He has appeared on the Ray Martin Show, Sixty Minutes, That's Country Today Country Crossroads on aurora channel 183 and various other TV shows over the last 15 years. With an easy going personality, Owen has always been approachable by his ever increasing fans is what keeps him going.

Owen has developed into an all round entertainer. Featured in his show are impersonations of many well known artists. The most popular of these being Frank J Spencer: Described by many as the funniest and most energetic comedy act to come along in years.

Singer, Songwriter, Comedian, Yodeller, Award Winner. Who could ask for more? Owen Blundell is quick witted, unpredictable, and energetic. If you have never seen Owen, you are missing out on a truly talented entertainer. And a show that will leave you wanting more every time
